

Environmentally friendly: Now: increasing awareness about environment > future: everyone aware > more attention to environment > reduce tree cutting > stop buying paper books/newspapers

In addition, people will try to be more environmentally friendly. ~~Public~~ awareness of environmental issues is increasing through education and the media. As a result, the number of people who are environmentally conscious is growing. So it is expected that more people everyone will pay attention to protecting the environment in the future. This will lead to fewer them to reduce the number of trees being cut down and reduced paper production. As a result, people-them will not buy printed books and newspapers.

Note: you have a lot of short and simple sentences which have been linked externally. I would join some of them to create more internal links and more complex structures:

Commented [ET1]: You must begin by introducing the main idea.

Commented [ET2]: 1.This is not in your notes.
2.This part basically repeats the part before it.

Commented [ET3]: You are explaining why you think NO ONE will buy printed publications in the future, not MORE PEOPLE. Follow your notes.

Commented [ET4]: 1.Not what your notes say
2.Your notes say that people will pay more attention to the environment and reduce tree cutting. You are explaining what PEOPLE will do, so the focus must be on the doer → active voice

Commented [ET5]: 1.Not what your notes say
2.The task says people will stop buying paper, not that paper will stop being produced.

Commented [ET6]: The main purpose of this exercise is learning to follow your notes and maintain the progression of ideas when writing. I have already explained extensively why it is not a good idea to change, add or remove ideas and change the order in which they are presented in the writing phase.
