

1. The diagrams illustrate how the centre of ~~Islip~~Islip, which is a small town, is planned to develop.

Overall, the residential areas will undergo significant changes, as will the road layouts and transportation system, and educational, recreational and commercial facilities, while the park is expected to remain unchanged, and the countryside is going to be eliminated some shops and housing areas will remain unchanged.

- Commented [ET1]: Because the school will actually grow, albeit minimally.
- Commented [ET2]: The park and countryside will change dramatically.
- Commented [ET3]: This includes the northern row of shops and the shopping centre.
- Commented [ET4]: The park will shrink.
- Commented [ET5]: We do not normally report specifics here in the overview. This is included in RECREATIONAL.
- Commented [ET6]: The southern row of shops will remain unchanged.
- Commented [ET7]: The southern housing district will not change.

2. The diagrams illustrate how ~~the~~Islip town center is planned to be developed in the future.

Overall, there will be extensive developments concerning the instruction~~construction~~ of a shopping center, transport facilities, new housing and roads, despite the school will remain unchanged although some shops and housing areas will remain unchanged.

- Commented [ET8]: Incomplete: this does not include the destruction of the countryside, the shrinking of the park, and the development of the school.
- Commented [ET9]: This is followed by a noun or phrase, not a clause.
- Commented [ET10]: See comment 1

3. The diagrams illustrates how the centre of Islip town is planned to change in the future.

Overall, there will be extensive developments with regard to the structure of suburb

Commented [ET11]: This is حومه.

countryside and the row of shops to the north of Main road, as well as recreational facilities,

Commented [ET12]: 1.This is too specific for the overview.
2.This does not cover the shopping centre.

commercial, educational, transport and new residential developmentsfacilities, while school

Commented [ET13]: See comment 1

and the row of shops to the south of Main road some shops and housing areas will remain

Commented [ET14]: This is too specific for the overview.

Commented [ET15]: See comment 7

unchanged.

4. The diagrams illustrate how Islip town center is planned to develop in the future. Overall, it will experience major transformations, including the addition of roadways, new accommodation, and transport facilities, while the school will remain in its original location

Commented [ET16]: See comment 8

Commented [ET17]: The school will grow in size. That is the change it will experience.

some shops and housing areas will remain unchanged.

Commented [ET18]: See comments 6 and 7

5. The diagrams illustrate the developments planned for the centre of Islip, which is a small town.✓

Overall, there will be extensive changes in the transportation ~~facility~~, recreational, commercial and residential facilities, while the school is going to be developed just a

~~bits~~slightly. ~~The residential area, commercial area and entertainment facility are going to be~~

~~expanded and new types of roots are going to be built. Some shops and housing areas will~~

remain unchanged

6. The diagrams illustrate how Islip town center is planned to develop in the future. Overall, there will be extensive developments concerning the ~~infrastructure of a shopping center,~~ commercial, transport, ~~new roads and~~ housing, educational and recreation facilities, while ~~the~~ school ~~some shops and housing areas~~ will remain unchanged.

Commented [ET19]: Informal

Commented [ET20]: This can be included in the previous sentence. No need to say it again here.

Commented [ET21]: The changes in the commercial area are not EXPANSION.

Commented [ET22]: There are no entertainment facilities (e.g. cinemas) in the maps. There are recreational facilities (the park and the countryside), which will actually diminish.

Commented [ET23]: Correct: routes

Commented [ET24]: 1. Some routes are going to be eliminated.
2. You can include the routes in the transport facilities in the first sentence.

Commented [ET25]: See comments 6 and 7

Commented [ET26]: This makes no sense here. Did you means CONSTRUCTION?

Commented [ET27]: Too specific and does not include other changes to commercial facilities (i.e. shops).

Commented [ET28]: See comment 2

Commented [ET29]: See comment 1

Commented [ET30]: See comments 6 and 7

7. The diagrams illustrate how the centre of ~~Isip~~Islip, which is a small town, is planned to develop.

Overall, the residential area will undergo significant changes, as will the road layouts, recreational and educational facilities and transportation system, and the commercial area is going to restructure while the school is some shops and housing areas are expected to remain unchanged. ~~Also, The commercial area is going to restructure.~~

Commented [ET31]: This should be included in the part about the changes.

Commented [ET32]: See comment 1

Commented [ET33]: See comments 6 and 7

8. The diagrams illustrate how the centre of Islip town is planned to be developed in the future.

Overall, there will be extensive developments in terms of ~~buildings~~, recreational areas, and transport, commercial, housing and educational facilities, while some shops and housing areas will remain unchanged. In particular, the housing area will be expanded, and the main road is going to be converted into a dual carriageway.

Commented [ET34]: See comment 3

Commented [ET35]: See comment 1

Commented [ET36]: See comments 6 and 7

Commented [ET37]: Actually, we are not supposed to get too particular here in the overview.

Commented [ET38]: This should be included in the first part of the sentence, where you discuss the changes.

Commented [ET39]: Too specific

9. The diagrams illustrate the development planned for the center of a small town, called Islip.

Overall, there will be ~~changed significantly~~significant changes in ~~recreational~~, transport,

Commented [ET40]: See comment 2

~~residential, and educational facilities~~, as the ~~center town~~area will be surrounded by a dual

Commented [ET41]: 1. Correct: town center
2. Use referencing to avoid repetition.

carriageway. ~~While a car park, pedestrians path, transport and new residential facilities is~~ Commented [ET42]: You are too specific. The overview must discuss these elements and changes in a more general way. That is why I introduced the vocabulary for different FACILITIES.

~~going to be constructed, while the housing on the southern side and the shops just off the~~

Commented [ET43]: See comment 38

~~main road to the south~~some shops and housing areas will remain unchanged.

Commented [ET44]: Too specific

10. The diagrams illustrate the current layout of Islip town center along with the developments planned for it in the future.

Overall, there are going to be intensive developments with regard to replacement of the Commented [ET45]: If you want to say what kind of change each facility will experience, the overview will become too long. Just summarise them.

countryside, construction of new residential areas, transport facilities and roads recreational,

Commented [ET46]: This includes the park and the countryside.

commercial, transport, residential and educational facilities. Although, there will be some

Commented [ET47]: See comment 3

Commented [ET48]: This includes the roads, as well.

Commented [ET49]: No comma here

modifications to the school and park, they will remain largely unchanged, although some Commented [ET50]: The park will shrink significantly.

shops and housing areas will remain unchanged.

Commented [ET51]: See comments 6 and 7