

The maps below show the centre of a small town called Islip as it is now, and plans for its development.

Summarise the information by selecting and reporting the main features, and make comparisons where relevant.

Write at least 150 words.

Body 1: Currently/Presently/At present,...

1. At present there is a countryside north of the map area and at the bottom of it to its south there is a main road running/that runs from west to east, surrounding/surrounded by shops in on 2 sides. There are 2 residential areas south of the shops in the middle of/between a school to the left and a park to the right.

→ There are two residential areas south of the shops at the centre and in the south, which are located in between a school to the left and a park to the right. Two roads connect...

2. At present, there is a countryside north of the city centre and there is a main road which runs west-east to the north of the city centre in the north with shops located on both sides of it.

3. In the current map/At present, there is a main road running from the west to the east, surrounded by shops to the north and south. The northern shopping area reaches to the countryside and the southern one reaches to a housing area in the centre. On the left/In the east a school is placed/located with a road connected to/connecting it to the main one. A park is located in the right side of/to the east of the housing area connected to the main road via another road, and another housing area is sited between the school and the park to in the south.

4. Currently, there is a countryside in the north and at the bottom to the south of it there is a main road running from east to west to east and surrounded by shops to the north and south. There is a residential area at the center of the map, which reaches es to a park that is located at the bottom of it to the east. A/Another housing area is placed/sited in the south of the map, which is connected close to a school on the left side in the west. PROGRESSION!

Body 2: According to the second map,.../There are plans to...

1. There are plans to demolish the countryside and the shops to the south, which are going to be replaced by a bus station, shopping center, car park and ~~a~~ new residential area. The main road will be converted to a pedestrians' path, while the shops to its south and the housing district in the center will remain unchanged.

2. There are plans to demolish the countryside, and the northern shops are going to be replaced by a bus station, shopping center, car park. ~~and a~~ A new housing area will be built east of the car park, and ~~a pedestrians only is going to be built the part of the main road~~ south of them is going to be converted to a pedestrian-only path.

3. According to the second map, the countryside and the shops to the south of it are going to be demolished and replaced with a bus station, a shopping centre, a car park and a new housing area. There are plans for converting the main road ~~into to~~ a ~~pedestrians-pedestrians-~~only path and keeping the shops to the south of it unchanged.

4. According to the second map, ~~T~~the countryside, ~~the main road~~ and the shops to the ~~north~~ south of ~~the main road it~~ are going to be demolished and replaced by a bus station, shopping centre, car park and ~~a~~ new residential area. The [central part of the] main road is going to be converted ~~into dual carriage way which will connect the west to the east.~~ to a path/an area for pedestrians only,...