

Paraphrasing Practice

The media should report more stories which report good news.

1. It is suggested that the media share more stories involving good news.
2. More ~~stories~~ that ~~are reporting~~ report ~~Good~~ news should be reported ~~more~~ in the media.
3. The media should report more positive news stories.
4. The media should report more stories that include good news. ✓
5. The media should cover more stories containing positive news. ✓
6. More stories which report pleasant news ~~need~~ ought to be reported by the media.
7. ~~The~~ medium ~~media~~ should report more stories that report good news.

Some people think that the main benefit of international cooperation is in the protection of the environment, while others believe that it mainly benefits businesses.

1. A number of people believe that the major benefit of international cooperation is in the protection of the environment, ~~on the other hand~~ whereas some people think that ~~is it~~ mainly benefits businesses.

2. ~~It is assumed~~ A number of people assume that protecting ~~of~~ the environment is ~~only main~~ beneficial to benefit of international ~~organizations~~ cooperation, whereas other individuals ~~discuss think it has advantages just its main advantages are~~ for businesses.

3. A number of individuals believe that the main benefit of global cooperation is in the protection of the environment, whereas others hold the opinion that it is mainly ~~proves to be~~ beneficial for businesses.

4. ~~A An~~ A number of individuals believe that the main benefit of global cooperation is in the protection of the environment, whereas others believe that it mainly benefits businesses.

5. Some people believe that the main advantage of international ~~corporations~~ cooperation is environmental protection, while others think that ~~they are it is~~ mainly beneficial to businesses.

6. Some people think that international cooperation will mainly lead to environmental protection, whereas others insist that it will mainly benefit businesses.

~~On the other hand others insist that international cooperation for protecting the environment will mainly benefit businesses rather than protecting the environment.~~

7. While some people believe that global collaboration is primarily beneficial for protecting the environment, others argue that the business sector benefits the most from it. ✓