5. A large number of individuals do not consider themselves safe, ~~no matter if~~ when they are in their house or ~~they are not~~ when they go out.

Commented [ET6]: This means the location is not a factor and people feel unsafe anyway. However, the task emphasizes two different situations: when they are home, and when they go out.

Commented [ET7]: Not what the original sentence says: this means they are not home, not that have gone out. Going out means leaving your home to have fun or socialize, e.g. go to a pub or restaurant, meet friends, go to a party, or...

Some people think that charity organizations should only offer help to people of their own country. But others believe that these organizations should give aid to people in great need wherever they live.

6. A number of individuals believe that charity organizations should just help their own nation, while others say that ~~these groups~~ they should assist those who have crucial needs, no matter where they live.

Commented [ET8]: You are refereeing to organisations, not groups.
